the 26th November 03, sanction was accorded to the employment of a Doti for the Evangeric Branch Dispensary with effect from the 1st Dec 1903, and the President was requested to report the circumstances under which the said Doti was employed and kept on from the 7th March to 31st May 1902 without obtaining the sanction of Government.

In reply, the President states that on the urgent representation of the Hospital Assistant in charge of the said Dispensary, a Doti was employed as there was provision for it in the budget
